A. Youth Seminar Code of Conduct:

All attendees of the Lott Carey Annual Youth Seminar are required to:

- Follow the directions and guidelines of those in authority.
- Respect God and all persons whom you come into contact with, including yourself, those in authority, other seminar attendees and persons you encounter on campus and in the community.
- Respect the facilities, buildings, equipment and environment of the Youth Seminar by cleaning up after yourself and making sure that you leave each space in just as good, or in an even better condition than you found it.
- Respect the work, knowledge, insights, and instructions of the particular organizations, churches, agencies, and person(s) that you are working with.
- Adhere to the Youth Seminar Dress Code, which absolutely means:
  - NO tank tops, halter tops, crop-tops (midriff-bearing) or A-line shirts
  - NO tight or sheer clothing (i.e. no leggings worn as pants without proper covering)
  - NO clothing with holes or showing undergarments
  - NO clothing that commends negative behavior
  - ALL shorts and/or skirts must be no shorter than knee length
  - If a leader and/or Lott Carey designate feels that you are dressed inappropriately you will be asked and expected to change your clothes immediately.
- Attend and be prompt to all plenary sessions, family group sessions, service opportunities and other requisite meetings, events and programs.
- Remain on campus, unless first cleared by a Lott Carey IYD Team member or Lott Carey Staff Member.
- Refrain from entering the residence hall of the opposite sex.
- Refrain from gambling, cursing/swearing and fighting and abstain from the consumption of alcoholic beverages, the use of tobacco and illegal drugs, and the possession and/or use of weapons.
- Endeavor to have a great experience and an awesome time at the seminar by maintaining a positive attitude and refraining from gossip, complaining and negative comments.

Please understand that should you fail in any significant way to meet the terms of this covenant your pastor will be notified and you may be required to return home early at your own expense.

B. Mission Service Guidelines:

1) All seminar attendees are required to participate in mission service opportunities during the Youth Seminar and wholeheartedly contribute their share of the work toward their specified projects.

2) Please note that mission service opportunities are assigned by Family Groups. These are the learning groups that are designated by age. Therefore, mission outreaches and community impact projects will be led by Family Group Leaders and co-led by chaperones.

3) All seminar attendees are expected to be present in the designated missions meeting location at least 30 minutes prior to their group’s departure. Attendees are expected to be finished with breakfast, properly dressed and prepared to depart with all requisite items by this time.

4) All seminar attendees are expected to maintain a servant’s attitude towards all persons by demonstrating a Christ-like character in both their dress and behavior.

5) All seminar attendees are expected to follow the dress code (outlined above) and only wear closed-toe shoes to mission outreaches. If a seminar attendee is improperly dressed he/she will be asked and expected to change into “proper dress” immediately.

6) Seminar attendees should not bring items to the Youth Seminar that they cannot afford to lose. Lott Carey, nor its leadership and designates are responsible for lost or missing items.
